

We are recruiting

NCS Team Leader (Stoke)

Approximately 50 positions

Are you looking for summer work for 2020? If so please take a look at this amazing opportunity.

YMCA North Staffordshire are currently looking for individuals to engage, motivate, challenge and support young people taking part in the National Citizen Service (NCS) during the Summer 2020 Programme.

Your main objectives will be to lead and inspire a team of 15-17 year olds through a 4 week programme, acting as a positive role model and recording the activities. Collecting registers and feedback to produce a report following project completion.

The ideal candidate should be highly motivated, fun, confident and have experience in inspiring and supporting people. An enhanced DBS check will be required for this role

The role is for a 4 week contract* including residential and non-residential phases. Each 4 week contract will pay £1,700. There is an opportunity to work more than one contract over the summer depending on dates and availability.

If you can demonstrate the necessary skills, experience and enthusiasm for this position please contact John Beswick on John.Beswick@ymcans.org.uk for more information and an application pack.

Come and make a difference! Help young people reach their full potential. Today's young people are tomorrows future.

Deadline for job applications: Rolling applications at present. The YMCANS reserve the right to close this position at anytime.

* 3 week contracts also available
